

Air1 is a great service to our local community as it provides positive listening for our community as an alternative to the immoral music played on many local stations. This is necessary as I try to raise my child with morals and values that are different from most of society's. Please do not give LPFM priority with broadcasting. Thank you.